Re. marriage of [illegible] John Leach for Father John Leach

"Rufus Greene came from ____Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood [sic], [His wife was actually Betsey Weed.] and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius, Ira, who died in Missouri; Charles who died in California; Mary, who married John Leach and now lives at Havana, N.D., and Robert, who died at Racine, Wis. All are dead except Mary."[10]

Rufus Green died 7 April 1847 in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence, County, New York, at age 60 from consumption. [11] His birth year calculated from his age at the time of death was circa 1787. The Early History of the Town of Hopkinton contained a diary, and these two entries were entered on page 392: "[March] 6th [1847]. . .Mr. Rufus Greene died to-day, been sick about six years, endured a great deal of suffering. [March] 8th Mr. Greene buried to-day. . ."[12]

Probate records for Betsey Greene filed the 15th March 1798 recorded in Volume 11, page 105, gave the following information: Betsey Greene died 3 February 1872 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Mary C. Leach was appointed executor of her mother's will. "Kenosha County Court--In Probate. Your Petitioner [Mary C. Leach] further states that the heirs and next of kin of the said Betsey Green [sic] deceased, are Melville R. Green, Ira W. Green, Charles E. Green. & Jane A. Kent, besides your petitioner--all sons & daughters of said deceased."*

David identified as the son of John Leach in the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton was born 30 August 1816, married Mary Smith, who was born 15 May 1820, the daughter of Josiah Smith and Sally Corwin. "The Smiths came to Hopkinton in 1833. Mary, m. David Leach, April 10, 1842, b. Aug. 30, 1816, d. April 17, 1900. Had two children:"* Their two children had the following headstone inscriptions on the David Leach monument in the Hopkinton Cemetery: "Ella H. Leach/Wife of/Carlos Colton/Born Mar. 30, 1845/Died Sept. 4, 1900, and Frances Leach/Born Sept. 23, 1843/Died Apr. 21, 1859.*

David Leach was important in the preparation of this sketch of John Crum and Mary C. Leach. Some indirect evidence from secondary sources suggests that John Crum Leach was a younger brother of David.

David's death record was secured from the State of New York, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Registered No. 15531. His death record gave his age at death as 83 years 7 mos. 16 days. His birthplace was listed as Vermont, and his place of death was given as Hopkinton. The record showed 70 years as the answer to the question, "How long a resident here." His father's name was recorded as John Leach, born Vt.; his mother's name, Abigail Ellis, born Vt. David's date of birth was not stated on his death record, but his actual age at death was provided in years, months, and days.*

The 1900 U.S. Census for Weber Township, Sargent County, North Dakota, taken 22nd June 1900, provided the following information for John C. Leach: "John C. Leach, born Apr. 1827, age 73, married 46 years, born in New York, father born in New Hampshire, mother born in Vermont"* Even though the death record for David Leach gave his father's birthplace as Vermont"* Even though the death record for David Leach gave his father's birthplace as Vermont, this information cannot be considered reliable. The person providing the answers may not have known the actual facts concerning his parents.

The 1840 census for Hopkinton, St. Lawrence County, New York listed a David Leach on page 277, line 24 of the census. His name was omitted from the 1840 census index, but he was discovered on the same page as Rufus Greene. One male, [possibly John Crum Leach] was recorded in the 10-15 age group. This male was obviously too old to be a child of David. One male in the 20-30 age group and one female, 15-20, were also recorded in the household. David was born in 1816, and he was probably the one male in the 20-30 category. However, the identity of the female between the ages of 15-20 remains a mystery. She may have been a sister or a housekeeper. David married Mary Smith 10 April 1842.; therefore, he was probably single at the time of the 1840 census.

St. Lawrence County records listed a will for David Leach, No. 10155, died April 17, 1900. An effort will be made to secure a copy of this will from St. Lawrence County records

Abigail Ellis was recorded as David's mother on his death record. With this information, it was easy to find a marriage record for John Leach and Abigail Ellis. A record of the marriage was found at the [Vital Records Office] in Concord, New Hampshire. "John Leach married Abigail Ellis, July 11, 1813, at Bow [New Hampshire]."*

A caveat must be issued here. Abigail Ellis was David Leach's mother. Her name was obtained from his death record; but even if John Crum Leach proved to be David's younger brother, it cannot be concluded from this fact that Abigail Ellis was John's mother. The eleven-year gap between 1816, David's birth year, and 1827, John's birth year, suggests that great caution must be used and additional records must be found before reaching this conclusion.

To further complicate such a finding, John Leach's middle name must be considered. Crum was an unusual given name. Was it the maiden name of his mother or grandmother? Research into Leach and Crum families who lived in close proximity to each other was done using the 1820 and 1830 U.S. Census for New York. This study proved fruitless. However, it seemed reasonable to speculate that John's middle name, Crum, was used to honor an important person.

Most of the data presented in the preceding paragraphs was based on direct and indirect evidence from secondary sources. Even this type of evidence has been difficult to find. Actually, a history of Kenosha County, Wisconsin, provided a short biographical sketch of John C. Leach in the Somers Township section, page 711. It provided the first evidence concerning the time of his arrival in Kenosha County, Wisconsin, and of his year of marriage to Mary C. Greene.

1850 census records for New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconson have been searched for a record of John C. Leach, age 23, born New York. However, a record of his whereabouts in 1850 has not been found. To date, Mary C. Greene has not been located in the 1850 census. She was 20 or 21 years old at the time of the census. Since she was born on 4 January 1830, she was probably 21 years old at the time the census was taken.

white female. Since this census data was alphabetized, it was impossible to determine whether the Greene and the Leach households were neighbors.[26]

The 1860 U.S. Census for Somers taken 1 June 1860 recorded two Greene and one Leach household as follows: Dwelling No. 856, Family No. 775, Ira W. Green, age 33, born Vermont; Ada F. Green, 30, Ohio; Charles M., 9, Illinois; Imogene C. 7, Wisconsin; Helen C., 1, Wisconsin. Dwelling No. 857, Family No. 776, J. C. Leach, age 30, born New York; Mary C. Leach, 24, Vermont; William H. Leach, 3, Wisconsin; Hattie Leach 2, Wisconsin; John Frien, 24, Germany; Betsey Green, 63, Vermont. Dwelling No. 858, Family No. 777, Melville Green, age 37, born Vermont; Elisabeth Green, 22, New Jersey; Robert Green, 2, Wisconsin; George Green, 1/12, New Hampshire. . .The itemized data for each person in this census provided the name, age and birthplace for every member of each household..[27]

John C. Leach and his wife, Mary, had three children. Their oldest child, William H. Leach, was born 22 September 1856 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. He died 17 March 1926 in Racine from cerebral apoplexy.[28] William Leach married Emma Elizabeth Kingman, on 13 November 1878 in Somers. Emma was born 23 November 1855, the daughter of Enos Kingman and Elizabeth Gould. She died 14 July 1936 in Racine.[29] A record of the marriage of William and Emma was found in Kenosha County records.[30]

William and Emma had several children who were born in Racine, Racine County, Wisconsin. The following information has been provided concerning their children. Arthur Garfield Leach was born 13 July 1884. He married Arabelle Gibson in Racine. Arthur died 5 September 1941 at age 57 of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was buried in Mound Cemetery, Racine. Ethel E. was born May 1888, but she died 14 June 1889. An unnamed child was born 13 June 1890 but probably died as an infant. Ruth K., a daughter, was born 3 December 1892; but she died 14 April 1897. Geanee was born 15 August 1895. She lived to adulthood and married William Ellingham. Grace, her twin sister, was born 15 August 1895; but she died 7 March 1898. Karen's name was found in cemetery records, but no further information has been found about her. Racine County vital records and cemetery records provided information concerning the children of William and Emma Leach.[31]

The following obituary for William H. Leach appeared in the Racine Journal News, March 18, 1926: "William H. Leach, aged 70 years, died at his late home, 1229 Cherry street, last night. He was born in the town of Somers, Kenosha County, and had been a resident of this city for 45 years. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. William Ellingham and one son, Arthur besides eight grandchildren. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Thronson Funeral home, South Main street, the Rev. Mr. Chynoweth officiating. The burial will be in Mound Cemetery.[32]

Their only daughter, Hattie M. Leach, was born 2 January 1858 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Hattie never married. She probably lived in Racine from about 1883 when her parents moved to Racine. Hattie's name first appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1887 as an assistant to C. C. Beebe. She apparently remained with the same employer until she moved to North Dakota about 1894. She appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1897 as follows:

"Leach, Hattie M., emp. Beebe Mfg. Co., res. 1016 Geneva."[33] At this point, a conflict in data concerning Hattie's move from Racine, Wisconsin, to Havana, North Dakota, occurred.

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the following facts concerning Hattie's whereabouts on 8 March 1896: Havana Congregational Church records listed J. C. Leach as the first member received. Mrs. Mary Leach (Green) was member No. 2, and Hattie M. Leach was member No. 8. The church membership roster under "How Received" stated that the Leaches transferred from the First M. E. Church, Racine, Wisconsin.[34] Hattie's obituary stated the following "Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Crum Leach. She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak."[35] Three different sources provide three different years, so the exact date of her move probably will not be determined. She obviously lived in Havana, North Dakota, before March 1896.

Hattie Leach's obituary continued with the following remarks: "She worked as assistant to her brother, Edward, at the local depot until 1899, at which time she received the appointment as postmistress at Havana, which post she faithfully served for thirty-five years."[36] Hattie lived with her brother, Edward John Leach and his wife, Elizabeth King sometime after her mother's death in 1909. She was not a member of the Edward Leach household at the time of the 1910 census, but she resided with them in 1932 when Edward Leach, Jr., joined the famiily.[37] Hattie died 9 January 1935 of myocarditis in Britton, Marshall County, South Dakota. She was buried in Grave 3, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin, beside her parents, John C. and Mary Leach.[38]

Some Historical and Personal Comments: Ed Leach, Jr., reminisced about his great Aunt Hattie. "When I came to Havana after my mother died in April 1932, Aunt Hattie was living with my grandparents and working as postmistress at the local Post Office. When Franklin Roosevelt won the presidential election in 1932, Aunt Hattie lost her position. She was a "rock-ribbed" Republican; and after Franklin Roosevelt was inaugurated as President, a democratic postmaster replaced my aunt. In those days, a postmaster or postmistress position was controlled by political patronage. Today, these jobs are obtained through Civil Service."

Ed continued, "I lived with my grandparents from about May 1932 until Grandpa died in August 1936. Aunt Hattie had the important assignment of helping me learn to read. Every evening after supper we went to the porch, and she gave me a reading lesson. To the dismay of my Aunt Leola, who was my teacher, I memorized my reading lessons. When my aunt wasn't looking and when it was my turn to read, I stood in front of the class and read with the book upside-down. Of course, my aunt was very annoyed when the other "kids" laughed at my antics."[39]

Their youngest child, Edward John Leach was born 7 December 1863 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin.[40] He married Elizabeth King 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.[41] Elizabeth was born 16 September 1869 or 1870 in Avoca, Potawattamie County, Iowa, the daughter of Samuel Ashley King and Hannah Studwell.[42] Edward died 5 August 1936 of angina pectoris in Havana, North Dakota. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota.[43] Elizabeth died 21 January 1937 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California, of diabetes complicated by gangrene. She was buried beside her husband in the Britton Cemetery.[44]

Note: The headstone inscription and death certificate gave Elizabeth King's birth date as 16 September 1870. The U.S. Census record for Avoca, Pottawattamie County, Iowa, taken on 12 July 1870, listed the following on page 189, line 23, dwelling 103, family 100: King, Saml, 44, farmer; Hannah, 39, keeping house; Horace G., 17, farm laborer; Jay, 14; Alpha, 12; William, 10; Mary A., 6; Elisabeth, 8/12. Elizabeth King's birth year must have been 1869. A child 8/12 of a year old on 12 July 1870 had to be born in 1869.[45]

Some Genealogical Facts and Some Interesting Details:

Samuel Ashley King was born 14 March 1825 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont.[46] John King, his father, was born 1 November 1796 in Wilbraham, Hampden County, Massachusetts,[47] the son of Oliver King who was born 5 December 1748 in Enfield, Hartford County, Connecticut. Oliver King was the son of Parmenas King and Hannah Terry.[48] John's mother, Ruth Cooley, Jr.,was born 18 July 1757 in Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, the daughter of Aaron Cooley and his wife, Ruth Mears.[49] Oliver King and Ruth Cooley married 27 January 1777, in Wilbraham, Hampden County, Massachusetts.[50]

Samuel Ashley King's mother, Alpa M. H. Buck, born 27 April 1807, in Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont, was the daughter of Daniel Buck and Content Ashley.[51] Alpa married John King 1 January 1821 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont, before she was 14 years old.[52] John and Alpa had five children. Ann Maria was born 27 September 1821; Alonzo P. B., 17 March 1823; Samuel Ashley, 14 March 1825; Londus Bingham, 12 May 1828. These four children were born in Chelsea, Vermont.[53] .Their youngest son, Horace Allen, was born 27 April 1830 in Worcester, Washington County, Vermont.*

Alpa's father, Daniel Buck, was the son of Thomas Buck and Jane Buck. He served in the Revolutionary War and suffered the loss of his left arm as a result of an injury sustained in battle. Daniel Buck later became a well-known lawyer and politician.[54] It seemed reasonable to speculate that the loss of his arm affected his choice of a profession.

Content Ashley, Alpa's mother, was born in 1771, in Claremont, New Hampshire, the daughter of Samuel Ashley and Lydia Doolittle.[55] Content (Ashley) Buck died 14 January 1850, in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts, at age 78 from a "disease of heart". She was buried in the Old Cemetery, Chelsea, Vermont, beside her husband.[56]

Daniel Buck's service to his state and counttry was detailed in the following paragraph on page 151 of Who Was Who in America, Historical Volume 1607-1896, Revised Edition, 1967:

> Buck, Daniel, congressman, state ofcl.; b. Hebron, Conn., Nov. 9, 1753; s. Thomas and Jane Buck; m. Content Ashley, Sept. 22, 1786, 11 children including Daniel. Fought in Am. Revolution; one of Vt.'s earliest settlers, 1780; admitted to Vt. Bar, 1783; pros. atty, Orange County (Vt.), 1783-85, clk. Orange County Ct., 1783-84; del. to Vt. Conv. which ratified U.S. Constn., 1791; speaker Vt. Assembly, 1793-94; mem. Vt. Council of Censors, 1792; atty. gen. Vt., 1794, 1814; mem. U.S. Ho. of

Reps. (Federalist) from Vt., 4th Congress, 1795-97; states atty. Windsor County (Vt.), 1802-03. Died Chelsea, Vt. Aug. 16, 1816, buried Old Cemetery, Chelsea.[57]

Alpa must have been an important name for the Buck family. Alpa M. H. Buck was the third daughter that they named Alpa. The following records were obtained from the Norwich Town Hall, Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont: "Alpa Buck eldest daughter of Daniel & Content Buck died September 30th - 1803. Alpa Buck 2nd 4th -- daughter of Daniel & Content Buck born April 18th 1804 and died the 27th day of April A.D. 1807. Alpa Buck 3rd 5th daughter of Daniel and Content Buck was born the 27th of April A.D. 1807 about an hour before her sister died." To date, the source of this important name has not been found.[58]

Content Buck, lived almost 34 years after the death of her husband.[59] In 1838, she applied for a widow's pension in response to an Act of Congress enacted on 7th July 1838 entitled An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. A letter in Daniel Buck's pension file on June 19, 1895, to George W. Bassett, Los Angeles, California from the Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., provided the following information: "In reply to your request for a statement of the military history of Daniel Buck a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his (or his widow's) application for pension on file in this Bureau. From papers on file with his widow's claim for pension it appears that he enlisted in the summer of 1775 as a private in Capt. Stephen Pearl's company, Col. B. R. Woodbridge's Massachusetts regiment, and in December, 1776, was commissioned a Sergeant in Capt. Asa Barnes' company, Col. Paul D. Sergent's regiment. It is probable that he rendered later service as a private but the dates of his enlistment and discharge are not given.. . .Battles engaged in: White Plains, Trenton, Bennington; Residence of soldier at enlistment, Lanesborough, Mass., Date of application for pension, by widow, April 16, 1839; Residence at date of application, of widow, Washington, D. C.; Age at date of application, of widow, sixty-seven years. Remarks: Soldier married Content Ashley, Sept. 22, 1786, and died Aug. 14, 1816. At the battle of Bennington he received a wound in the left arm which necessitated its amputation.. . Commissioner."[60]

Research indicated that Alpa M. H. (Buck) King lived in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts. She married for the second time on 1 July 1851 in Lawrence. Her husband, David Morgan, was born 12 January 1797, in Beverly, Massachusetts, the son of Zachariah Morgan.[61] David Morgan died on 23 February 1878 in Andover, Massachusetts. His death record indicated that he was married at the time of death; however, no death record was found for Alpa Morgan in Massachusetts.[62] Since this State kept excellent early vital records, the absence of a death record for Alpa suggested some possible explanations. Some possibilities include the following: She died before 1878. They divorced. She survived him and moved out of state. The following biography relating to her son suggested that she, in fact, moved out of state; but no dates were provided.

This short biography about Samuel Ashley King from the History of Pottawattamie County, Iowa, O. L. Baskin & Co., 1883, provided the following information about the death of his mother and father: "S. A. King, farmer, P.O. Avoca, born in Orange County, Vt., April 13, 1825, [sic] [Samuel's birth date was 14 March 1825] son of John King, who died in Indiana in August, 1852; his mother [Alpa M. H. Buck] died in Dover, N. H." The biography continued with facts about his early work history. Before his father's death in Lake County, Indiana, Samuel went to Lake County. "His father, having moved there some time before, was very sick, and died from this sickness. He [Samuel] settled up the business and took his stepmother to Ohio.[63]"

Research continued in an effort to find documents or evidence about the place and date of death for Alpa, Samuel's mother, and for John King, his father; but to date, we have found no credible information. Alpa Buck married for a second time in July 1851[64], and John King reportedly died in August, 1852. Samuel's biography listed his states of residence until he reached 18 years of age. "Subject lived in Vermont until he was nine years old, when he was taken to Lowell, Mass., where he lived until he was thirteen years old, when he went to Huron [County], Ohio, remaining there until he was eighteen years old, when he rode on horseback to Galena, Ill., to try his fortunes in the lead mines." His mother's second marriage date, his father's death date, and his residence in Lowell, Massachusetts, and in Huron County, Ohio, suggested to these writers that Alpa and John King had divorced.[65] No evidence has been found concerning a divorce, but research will continue in an effort to find answers to these questions.

Hannah (Studwell) King (Henry Ett, on her father's will) was born 29 March 1830 in Genoa, Cayuga County, New York, the daughter of William Studwell and his wife, Elizabeth. Elizabeth Studwell's maiden name has not been determined despite research by several Studwell descendants. William Studwell was born 16 September 1784 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, He was a son of Gabriel Studwell who was born in Stamford, Connecticut. Gabriel died 5 April 1831 in Genoa, Cayuga County, New York.[66]

Additional data is available, but since the information does not directly relate to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, the facts will be limited to those already presented.

Edward John Leach and Elizabeth King were married 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.[67] Edward and Elizabeth had five children. Mabel Edna was born 19 July 1889, Britton, South Dakota;[68] John Stedwell, February 1891, Havana,[69] Sargent County, North Dakota; Samuel Jay, 26 November 1892, Havana;[70] Edward James, 29 December 1896, Havana;[71] and Leola Elizabeth, 10 September 1908 in Havana.[72]

Their oldest child, Mabel Edna, married William Wood Hastings on 14 February 1908 in Havana.[73] They had two children Willard Edward and Elizabeth Edna. Mabel died in 1961 in Sioux Falls, Minnehaha County, South Dakota. She was buried in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota.[74]

John Stedwell Leach, their second child, married Mrs. Kate P. (Macy) Grant of Nassau, Minnesota, 26 September 1916 in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota.[75] Their children were John Macy Leach, William King Leach, and Necia, Kate's daughter from her first marriage. After their younger son, William King Leach, graduated from high school in Havana, John and Kate moved with their family to Portland, Oregon. John died 5 December 1947 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon..

Their third child, Samuel Jay Leach, married Jessie Jordan on 20 June 1927 in Fargo, Cass County, North Dakota. Jean Leach was Sam and Jessie's only child. Samuel died 8 March 1945 in Havana. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota.

Their fourth child, Edward James Leach married Vera Eleanor Chandler 20 April 1918 in Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota. Vera was born 29 August 1897 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, the daughter of William Abraham Chandler and Lulu A. Jones. She died 29 April 1932 in Rockford, Winnebago County, Illinois. Edward and Vera had five children, Jane, Vera, Elizabeth, Edward James, Jr., and Sally Ann. Edward, Sr., died 23 August 1963 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. He was buried in Willamette National Cemetery, Portland, Oregon.

Their fifth and youngest child, Leola Elizabeth, was born 10 September 1908 in Havana. Leola attended the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks. She taught school in Havana for several years before moving to California in 1936. Lee married Rex Reginald Hyde on 4 October 1936 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California. They moved to northern California where Lee taught high school English in Newark and Fremont for many years. Rex was born 24 August 1906, and he died in Fremont, Alameda County, California, in February 1972. The Hydes had no children. Leola Hyde currently lives in Roseville, California.

After this brief discussion of the three children born to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, his wife, this sketch will return to Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, where John and Mary lived from about 1855 to circa 1882.

Listings in the Racine [Wisconsin] City Directory for 1883-1884 recorded "Leach, John C., farmer, res. 1206 N. Chatham," and "Leach Edward J. moulder, res., 1206 N. Chatham.". The 1885 directory listed 1206 N. Chatham as John C. Leach's residence, but no occupation was provided. Another listing for the same address appeared in the 1885 directory for "Leach, Edward J., student, W. U. Tel. Co., res. 1206 N. Chatham." In 1887, the following listing appeared for "Leach, John C., farmer, 1220 N. Chatham," and "Leach, Hattie, assistant, C. C.. Beebe, res. 1220 N. Chatham." Edward J. Leach was no longer listed in the Racine City Directory in 1887. Since Edward Leach married Elizabeth King in White Town, South Dakota, on the 4 September 1888, he probably left the Racine area between 1885 and 1888..

The listings for John C. and Hattie in 1888 read as follows: "Leach, John C., works J. W. Higgie; res., 1333 N. Main" and "Leach, Hattie M. asst. C. C. Beebe, res. 1333 N. Main." William Leach was listed as a moulder, residence 812 Hamilton in 1888 The following listings appeared in the 1890-1891 directory: "Leach John C., emp R. H. Mfg. Co., r. 1333 N. Main and Leach. Hattie M. Miss, asst. Dr. C.. Beebe, bds 1333 N. Main." As previously mentioned, Hattie appeared in the 1897 directory, but direct evidence from a primary source indicated that she moved before 1897., Havana Congregational Church entered Hattie on the membership list on 8 March 1896. Hattie's obituary provided the following information: "She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak." A letter dated 31 March 1989 from the First United Methodist Church provided the following report: "J. C. and Mrs. Mary Leach were members of the church in 1889 and were given letters of transfer to Havana, North Dakota in 1895." These conflicting data leave unanswered questions about the exact year the Leaches moved to North Dakota, but these remarks seemed to show that the three Leaches probably moved between 1892 and 1895. The city directory listing for Hattie in 1897 was obviously an error.

Note: Another Leach family lived in Racine in 1891. Eugene W. Leach and George W. Leach, Jr., were sons of George Washington Leach and Sally Walter. They were born Burke, Vermont. Eugene, George, Jr., and John C. Leach worked at the R. H. Mfg Co. in 1891. In addition, they belonged to the First United Methodist Church; but to date, we have made no genealogical connection between these families.

John C. Leach and his son, Edward Leach, were important people in the construction and the early operation of the Congregational Church in Havana. The following remarks clarified their importance to the success of this endeavor: The church records contained the minutes of a "Meeting for the consideration of building of the church, Havana, N.D. Oct. 6, 1896; moderator Rev. Williams. Motion made and carried that J. C. Leach confer with E. J. Leach for location and price of lot for church." A second meeting of the church was held Oct. 13, 1896. The following motions were made and carried: "That the society accept one of the lots selected by E. J. and J. C. Leach." Another motion made at this meeting suggested the importance of the Leaches in the decision making process. "That a building committee consisting of the three trustees and Mr. Darrow, Mr. E. J. Leach, Mr. Ladd, Mr. Brougher and Mrs Murphy decide the cost and size of the church." In a meeting for organizing the church, these remarks seemed to underscore the importance of the Leaches in the organization of this church. "The next business was the election of officers. The following were elected by unanimous vote. Clerk - Mrs. C. A. Bacon. Treasurer - Hattie M. Leach, Deacon - Francis Andrus, Trustee for three years - J. C. Leach, for two years - Mrs. Catherine Brougher, for one year - G. K. Chesley. The motion was made and approved that we ask to be received into the Wahpetin Conference. Carried by unanimous vote.. - Adjournment, Hattie M. Leach Secy Pro tem" The minutes of the annual church meeting on May 20, 1897 reflected the following: "Moved and seconded that J. C. Leach be appointed Deacon for three years" and finally "If Mrs. Brougher's or J. C. Leach's term as trustee expires with the present year the clerk has the authority to extend the time another year. Carried. Moved and seconded that Hattie M. Leach be elected treasurer for the ensuing year. Carried."

Page 3 of the church records provided a list of the deacons of the church. John C. Leach's service as a deacon began on May 20, 1897, and ended Dec. 31, 1900. His second appointment as deacon began on Jan. 24, 1901, and ended Dec. 26, 1902, and the third appointment began Dec. 30, 1902. The last deacon assignment began Dec. 25 and ended with his death on Aug. 12, 1905. John C. Leach joined this church on 8 March 1896; and he held a position of trust and honor until his death.

At least two attempts have been made to secure a death certificate from the State of North Dakota for John C. Leach. A death certificate has proved to be an essential genealogical record for determining the names of the deceased parents, the place and date of birth, and the date , place and cause of death. The two requests for this record have been unsuccessful. It may be wise to make one more request for the record as many states have probably computerized their records. If by chance the original record were misplaced or temporarily lost, it might now be available. The most likely scenario was that the record was not filed as required. His death occurred shortly after the State of North Dakota required vital records.

Mary (Greene) Leach died 30 March 1909 in Havana, North Dakota. Her death record was obtained from the State of North Dakota. Her death certificate gave the date of death, the names of her parents, and the place and date of birth. Other records have corroborated the data found in this record. It was a very valuable document, indeed.

An obituary was found for John C. Leach in the Monday afternoon issue, August 14, 1905, of The Racine Daily Journal, Racine, Wisconsin.

> J. C. Leach, a former old resident of Racine died on Saturday afternoon at his home in Havana, North Dakota age 78 years. The remains will be brought to the city for burial. Funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son, William Leach, [? ?] Villa Street. There survives the deceased a wife, two sons and one daughter. Mr. Leach was one of the honored and early residents and left here about ten years ago.

In addition to his wife, Mary, and his three children, William H., Hattie M. and Edward John Leach, seven grandchildren survived him. Arthur Garfield and Geanee Leach, children of William H. and Emma Leach, and Mabel Edna, John Stedwell, Samuel Jay, Edward James, and Leola Elizabeth, children of Edward John and Elizabeth Leach survived their grandfather.

An obituary for Mary Leach has not been located. We were unable to find an obituary in the Sargent County papers for either John or Mary Leach. Some obituaries contain important genealogical data, but John Leach's obituary was too general in content to be useful. We needed the names of his parents. We still do not know the name of his mother.

John Leach was buried in Grave 5, and Mary was buried in Grave 4, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin. Their daughter, Hattie, was buried beside them in Grave 3.

Who were Henry P. Greene and Emma C. Greene?

Early in our search for information about the Leach and Greene families, we were given copies of a letter and a certificate of good conduct. (1) The letter was addressed to Miss Hattie May Leach, Somers, Wis. from Cousin Henry [Henry P. Greene], Burlington, Vt., May 10, 1867. The final paragraph of the letter stated, "Well I have written you a long long letter and I suppose you will get very tired before you get it all read if indeed you can read it all it is so poorly written, so I will close. I want you to write a long letter to me very soon, and I want you [to] kiss Eddie and Willie and Mama an [sic] papa and Grandma for me., and remember, Eddie's first because he is my boy and don't forget to write. Cousin Henry." (2) The certificate provided this information. "This Certificate of good conduct is awarded to MISS EMMA C. GREEN In testimony of the cordial approbation of the Principal and Teachers of the Kenosha Young ladies Institute, for having completed a Term of eleven weeks, without any deviation from the rules of this Institution. Sophronia Broughton, Kenosha April, 1852."

Information gleaned from the probate files for Pliny P. Greene [a brother of Mary C. (Greene) Leach] and his widow, Celia S. Greene provided the answer to the questions, Who were Henry P.

Greene and Emma C. Greene? The direct evidence provided by these primary sources gave clear and convincing evidence that Henry and Emma Greene were children of Pliny P. Greene and his wife, Celia. John C. Leach was appointed administer of Celia Greene's estate. This fact suggested close ties between the Leach and Greene families.

> "The petition of Celia S. Green of said county [herewith] that her late husband Pliny P. Greene died on or about the second day of November 1850 in California leaving personal & real estate in Kenosha County and leaving two children to wit Emily C. Greene & Henry P. Greene both under the age of fourteen years who are residents of the county of Kenosha. Your petitioner therefore asks that she may be appointed guardian of said infant children. Signed: Celia S. Greene Dated February 22, 1851."

The second quotation signed by John C. Leach on May 20th 1858 was found in the probate file for Celia S. Greene:

> "The petition of John C. Leach of the town of Somers County of Kenosha & state of Wisconsin who is a creditor respectfully represents that Celia S. Green late of the City of Kenosha and County of Kenosha and State of Wisconsin, deceased on the 2nd day of October A. D. 1857 at her residence in the City of Kenosha aforesaid, intestate, as your petitioner believes, no last will and testament having been found or being known to exist; that said deceased left two children, viz: Emma C. Green aged about 20 years & Henry P. Green aged nine years who constitute the family of said deceased; that said deceased left goods, chattels, and personal estate within this county (or state) to the probable amount of one hundred & fifty dollars, and real estate to the amount unknown to your petitioner. That said deceased left debts to an amount (unknown to your petitioner)."
> "Your petitioner being desirous that Administration of the estate of said deceased be legally administered, would pray that administration thereof be granted unto him.and that appraisers be appointed pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, and according to the rules and practice of this court. Dated: Kenosha, May 20th 1858. Signed: John C. Leach."

As we end this narrative about John Crum Leach and Mary C. (Greene) Leach, some of their ancestors, and some of their descendants, we know unanswered questions remain; and we plan to continue our search for answers.

We urge anyone with facts about the people discussed in this sketch to share information with us. We plan to update this account when important data have been found.

One final historical story remains to be shareed. On page one, we noted that Dorothy Phelps, the wife of John Weed, was the daughter of Lemuel Phelps and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps. Lemuel and Dorothy Phelps were great grandparents of Mary C. Greene. After the birth of ten children, the following remarks from The Phelps Family of America. . . revealed surprising information. "He [Lemuel] joined the Shakers, and d. Hancock, Mass., Sept., 1808, aged 78." Dorothy (Dolly), the only girl, was born 25 November 1767. Luther the oldest son was born in 1760, and Elijah, the youngest son, was born in 1780. If several of the children were still dependent on their parents when Lemuel joined the Shakers, Dorothy Phelps probably had many hard, difficult years.

One late afternoon in 1987, we were in the Spear Road Cemetery in Shelburne, Vermont, checking the names on the oldest headstones. As we turned to leave the cemetery, we saw an old rectangular marble stone. The inscription read as follows: "In Memory of/Mrs. Dorothy/relict of/Mr. Lemuel Phelps/late of Pittsfield, Mass./who died/April 19, 1821/Aged 87 years. Dorothy was buried in the cemetery lot with her son, Elijah and his family.

We have limited information about this story, but it certainly merits further research. The situation described above provides food for imagination. The facts presented in Dorothy's situation could serve as a basis for a compelling historical novel.

JOHN CRUM LEACH AND HIS WIFE, MARY C. GREENE

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch

John Crum Leach was born on 8 April 1827 in New York.* He was probably the son of John Leach who died 2 February 1849, at age 47, in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence County, New York.* This John Leach's birth year, circa 1793, was determined from his date of death and his age at death. If information was accurately recorded., the birth year for John Leach was probably correct.

Mary C. Greene was born 4 January 1830 in Shelburne, Chittenden County, Vermont, the daughter of Rufus Greene and his wife, Betsey Weed.* Betsey was born in 16 September1790 in Hinesburg, Chittenden County, Vermont, the daughter of John Weed and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps. Rufus Greene and Betsey Weed married 30 August 1807 in Hinesburg, Vermont. John Weed was entered on their marriage record as Betsey's father. No information was provided concerning the parents of Rufus Greene.*

Note: Betsey Weed's father, John Weed, was probably the son of Jacob Weed. Her mother, Dorothy (Dolly) Phelps was the daughter of Lemuel Phelps and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps.

Considerable research has been done in an attempt to identify the parents of Rufus Greene. However, to date, no real progress has been made. It is possible that he was connected to the Surgeon John Greene family from Rhode Island, but this suspicion has not been proved either by direct or indirect evidence. Jonathon Greene, a neighbor of John Weed, was a descendant of Surgeon Greene; but no connection has been made between Jonathon and Rufus Greene..

This quote from the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton, by Carlton E. Sanford, pages 104-105, provided a link between John Leach and the Rufus Greene family. "John Leach, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone."*

The John Leach mentioned in the preceding paragraph probably was the John Leach who died 2 February 1840, at age 47.* This John Leach was buried in Section B, Lot 20, Hillcrest Cemetery, Parishville, New York.* Others buried in the same lot were Joseph Brownell, no record; Hannah Brownell, age 25, died January 1, 1836; and Phila Hazen, age 31, died April 18, 1826. To date, no other information has connected this John Leach to the others buried in this lot.*

The following quote from the Early History of the Town Hopkinton referred to the Rufus Greene family:

> "Rufus Greene came from ____Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood [sic], [His wife was actually Betsey Weed.] and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius, Ira, who died in Missouri; Charles who died in California; Mary, who married John Leach and now lives at Havana, N.D., *and Robert, who died at Racine, Wis. All are dead except Mary." 11 12 Sanford, Early History of Hopkinton.

Rufus Green died 7 April 1847 in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence, County, New York, at age 60 from consumption.* 12 His birth year calculated from his age at the time of death was circa 1787. The Early History of the Town of Hopkinton contained a diary. On page 392 of the diary, the following two entries were made: "[March] 6th [1847]. . .Mr. Rufus Greene died to-day, been sick about six years, endured a great deal of suffering. [March] 8th Mr. Greene buried to-day. . ." ~~1~~ 13

Probate records for Betsey Greene filed the 15th March 1798 recorded in Volume 11, page 105, gave the following information: Betsey Greene died 3 February 1872 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Mary C. Leach was appointed executor of her mother's will. "Kenosha County Court--In Probate. Your Petitioner [Mary C. Leach] further states that the heirs and next of kin of the said Betsey Green [sic] deceased, are Melville R. Green, Ira W. Green, Charles E. Green. & Jane A. Kent, besides your petitioner--all sons & daughters of said deceased."* ~~5~~ 14

David identified as the son of John Leach in the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton was born 30 August 1816, married Mary Smith, who was born 15 May 1820, the daughter of Josiah Smith and Sally Corwin. "The Smiths came to Hopkinton in 1833. Mary, m. David Leach, April 10, 1842, b. Aug. 30, 1816, d. April 17, 1900. Had two children:"* 15 Their two children had the following headstone inscriptions on the David Leach monument in the Hopkinton Cemetery: "Ella H. Leach/Wife of/Carlos Colton/Born Mar. 30, 1845/Died Sept. 4, 1900, and Frances Leach/Born Sept. 23, 1843/Died Apr. 21, 1859.* 16

David Leach was important in the preparation of this sketch of John Crum and Mary C. Leach. Some indirect evidence from secondary sources suggests that John Crum Leach was a younger brother of David.* ~~17~~ 18 U.S. Census (Population) New York, St Lawrence County, page 277 line 24 National Archives Microfilm Publication M704 rolls 334+335 17

David's death record was secured from the State of New York, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Registered No. 15531. His death record gave his age at death as 83 years 7 mos. 16 days. His birthplace was listed as Vermont, and his place of death was given as Hopkinton. The record showed 70 years as the answer to the question, "How long a resident here." His father's name was recorded as John Leach, born Vt.; his mother's name, Abigail Ellis, born Vt. David's date of birth was not stated on his death record, but his actual age at death was provided in years, months, and days.* 18

The 1900 U.S. Census for Weber Township, Sargent County, North Dakota, taken 22nd June 1900, provided the following information for John C. Leach: "John C. Leach, born Apr. 1827, age 73, married 46 years, born in New York, father born in New Hampshire, mother born in Vermont"* 19 Even though the death record for David Leach gave his father's birthplace as Vermont, this information cannot be considered reliable. The person providing the answers may not have known the actual facts concerning his parents.

The 1840 census for Hopkinton, St. Lawrence County, New York listed a David Leach on page 277, line 24 of the census. His name was omitted from the 1840 census index, but he was discovered on the same page as Rufus Greene. One male, [possibly John Crum Leach] was recorded in the 10-15 age group. This male was obviously too old to be a child of David. One male in the 20-30 age group and one female, 15-20, were also recorded in the household. David was born in 1816, and he was probably the one male in the 20-30 category. However, the identity of the female between the ages of 15-20 remains a mystery. She may have been a sister or a housekeeper.[20] David married Mary Smith 10 April 1842; therefore, he was probably single at the time of the 1840 census.[21]

St. Lawrence County records listed a will for David Leach, No. 10155, died April 17, 1900. An effort will be made to secure a copy of this will from St. Lawrence County records

Abigail Ellis was recorded as David's mother on his death record.[22] With this information, it was easy to find a marriage record for John Leach and Abigail Ellis. A record of the marriage was found at the [Vital Records Office] in Concord, New Hampshire. "John Leach married Abigail Ellis, July 11, 1813, at Bow [New Hampshire]."*[23]

A caveat must be issued here. Abigail Ellis was David Leach's mother. Her name was obtained from his death record; but even if John Crum Leach proved to be David's younger brother, it cannot be concluded from this fact that Abigail Ellis was John's mother. The eleven-year gap between 1816, David's birth year, and 1827, John's birth year, suggests that great caution must be used and additional records must be found before reaching this conclusion.

To further complicate such a finding, John Leach's middle name must be considered. Crum was an unusual given name. Was it the maiden name of his mother or grandmother? Research into Leach and Crum families who lived in close proximity to each other was done using the 1820 and 1830 U.S. Census for New York. This study proved fruitless. However, it seemed reasonable to speculate that John's middle name, Crum, was used to honor an important person.

Most of the data presented in the preceding paragraphs was based on direct and indirect evidence from secondary sources. Even this type of evidence has been difficult to find. Actually, a history of Kenosha County, Wisconsin, provided a short biographical sketch of John C. Leach in the Somers Township section, page 711. It provided the first evidence concerning the time of his arrival in Kenosha County, Wisconsin, and of his year of marriage to Mary C. Greene.[24]

1850 census records for New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconson have been searched for a record of John C. Leach, age 23, born New York. However, a record of his whereabouts in 1850 has not been found. To date, Mary C. Greene has not been located in the 1850 census. She was 20 or 21 years old at the time of the census. Since she was born on 4 January 1830, she was probably 21 years old at the time the census was taken.[25]

> It was with some relief that the following brief sketch of the Leaches was found: "JOHN C. LEACH, farmer, Sec. 5; P.O. Kenosha; born in New York in 1827; came West in 1851, locating in Kenosha Co.; he engaged in farming, which he followed until 1870, when he left his farm, returning in 1872, since which time he has remained on the farm; 1858 to 1860, he was Assessor for the town of Somers; was a member of the Town Board of Supervisors from 1873 to 1876, Town Treasurer in 1876, and is Town Treasurer at present; is a member of the M. E.

*Church. Married, in Kenosha, in 1855, Miss Mary C. Greene, a native of Vermont; they have three children, two boys and one girl--William H., Hattie M. and Edward J. Mr. Leach owns eighty and a half acres."

*Kenosha County History, page 771.

After the death of Rufus Greene in March 1847, his wife, Betsey, and some of his children made their way to southeastern Wisconsin. The 1850 U.S. Census recorded Betsey, Ira, and Melville Greene as residents of Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin.* In the 1855 "Enumeration of the Inhabitants of the Town of Somers in Kenosha County, State of Wisconsin, on the first day of June, 1855, Widow Green was listed with two white males and two white females. Ira Greene was listed below Widow Green. Three white males and two white females were counted in the Ira Greene household. John Leach was listed with one white male and one white female. Since this census data was alphabetized, it was impossible to determine whether the Greene and the Leach households were neighbors.*

The 1860 U.S. Census for Somers taken 1 June 1860 recorded two Greene and one Leach household as follows: Dwelling No. 856, Family No. 775, Ira W. Green, age 33, born Vermont; Ada F. Green, 30, Ohio; Charles M., 9, Illinois; Imogene C. 7, Wisconsin; Helen C., 1, Wisconsin. Dwelling No. 857, Family No. 776, J. C. Leach, age 30, born New York; Mary C. Leach, 24, Vermont; William H. Leach, 3, Wisconsin; Hattie Leach 2, Wisconsin; John Frien, 24, Germany; Betsey Green, 63, Vermont. Family No. 777, Melville Green, age 37, born Vermont; Elisabeth Green, 22, New Jersey; Robert Green, 2, Wisconsin; George Green, 1/12, New Hampshire. . .The itemized data for each person in this census provided the name, age and birthplace for every member of each household..*

John C. Leach and his wife, Mary, had three children. Their oldest child, William H. Leach, was born 22 September 1856 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, died 17 March 1926, of cerebral apoplexy, in Racine* William Leach married Emma Ellizabeth Kingman, born 23 November 1855, died 14 July 1936, Racine.* Wlilliam and Emma were married on 13 November 1878 in Somers. A record of their marriage was found in Kenosha County records, Volume 4, page 70.*

William and Emma had several children who were born in Racine. Racine County, Wisconsin. The following sketchy information has been provided concerning these children. Arthur Garfield Leach, born 13 July 1884, married Arabelle Gibson, died 5 September 1941, buried in Mound Cemetery, Racine,* Ethel E., born May 1888, died 14 June 1889, unnamed child, born 13 June 1890; Ruth K., born 3 December 1892, died 14 April 1897; Geanee, born 15 August 1895, married William Ellingham; Grace, born 15 August 1895, died 7 March 1898,* ~~and Karen, found in cemetery records~~. Racine County vital records and cemetery records provided information concerning the children of William and Emma Leach.*

The following obituary for William H. Leach appeared in the Racine Journal News, March 18, 1926: "William H. Leach, aged 70 years, died at his late home, 1229 Cherry street, last night. He was born in the town of Somers, Kenosha County, and had been a resident of this city for 45 years. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. William Ellingham and one son, Arthur besides eight grandchildren. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Thronson Funeral home, South Main street, the Rev. Mr. Chynoweth officiating. The burial will be in Mound Cemetery.[34] Obituary for William N. Leach, Racine Journal News, 18 March 1926. Racine, Racine County, Wisconsin.

Their only daughter, Hattie M. Leach, was born 2 January 1858 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Hattie never married. She probably lived in Racine from about 1883 when her parents moved to Racine. Hattie's name first appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1887 as an assistant to C. C. Beebe. She apparently remained with the same employer until she moved to North Dakota. She appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1897 as follows: "Leach, Hattie M., emp. Beebe Mfg. Co., res. 1016 Geneva."* At this point, a conflict in data concerning Hattie's move from Racine, Wisconsin, to Havana, North Dakota, occurred. 1887 + 1897 Racine City Directory, University Archives + Research Center, The Library Learning Center, University of Wisconsin - Parkside, 900 Wood Road, Box 2000, Kenosha, Wisconsin 53141-2000.

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the following facts concerning Hattie's whereabouts on 8 March 1896: Havana Congregational Church records listed J. C. Leach as the first member received. Mrs. Mary Leach (Green) was member No. 2, and Hattie M. Leach was member No. 8. The church membership roster under "How Received" stated that the Leaches transferred from the First M. E. Church, Racine, Wisconsin.* Hattie's obituary stated the following "Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Crum Leach. She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak."* Three different sources provide three different years, so the exact date of her move will probably not be determined. She obviously lived in Havana, North Dakota, before March 1896. At this time we have not determined when she joined her brother's family. Excerpts from Havana Congregational Church records, Havana, Sargent County, North Dakota. Copy of records in possession of writer. Hereinafter cited as Havana Church Records.

Hattie Leach's obituary continued with the following remarks: "She worked as assistant to her brother, Edward, at the local depot until 1899, at which time she received the appointment as postmistress at Havana, which post she faithfully served for thirty-five years."* Sometime after her mother's death in 1909, Hattie resided with her brother, Edward John Leach and his wife, Elizabeth King. She was not recorded as a member of Edward Leach's household at the time of the 1910 census.* She resided with them in 1932 when Edward Leach, Jr., joined the family. Hattie died 9 January 1935 of myocarditis in Britton, Marshall County, South Dakota. She was buried in Grave 3, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin, beside her parents, John C. and Mary Leach.* Obituary for Hattie M. Leach, Death certificate of Hattie May Leach, 9 January 1935, County File No. 2456, Marshall County Courthouse, Britton, SD. Certified copy.

Some Historical and Personal Comments: Ed Leach, Jr., reminisced about his great Aunt Hattie. "When I came to Havana after my mother died in April 1932, "Aunt Hattie" was living with my grandparents and working as postmistress at the Post Office. After the presidential election was won by Franklin Roosevelt in 1932, Aunt Hattie lost her position as postmistress. She was a "rock-ribbed" Republican; and when Franklin Roosevelt was inaugurated as President, my aunt was replaced by a Democrat. In those days, a postmaster or postmistress position was controlled by political patronage. Today, these jobs are obtained through Civil Service."

Ed continued, "I lived with my grandparents from about May 1932 until Grandpa died in August 1936. Aunt Hattie had the important assignment of helping me learn to read. Every evening after "supper" we went to the porch, and she gave me reading lessons. To the dismay of my Aunt Leola, who was my teacher, I memorized my reading lessons. When my aunt wasn't looking and when it was my turn to read, I stood in from of the class and read with the book upside-down. Of course, my aunt was very annoyed when the other "kids" laughed at my antics."*

Conversation with Edward Leach, Jr., 15 January 1999, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, California 95409

Their youngest child, Edward John Leach, born 7 December 1863 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, married Elizabeth King, born 16 September 1869, Avoca, Potawattamie County, Iowa. Elizabeth was the daughter of Samuel Ashley King, and Hannah Studwell. Edward died 5 August 1936 of angina pectoris in Havana, North Dakota. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota. Elizabeth died 21 January 1937 of diabetes complicated by gangrene with the contributing cause of myocarditis, in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California. She was buried beside her husband in the Britton Cemetery.

Some Genealogical Facts and Other Interesting Details: Samuel Ashley Kingwas born 14 March 1825, Chelsea, Oragne County, Vermont. His father, John King, born 1 November 1796 was the son of Oliver King, born 5 December 1748, Enfield, Hartford County, Connecticut John was the 11th of 13 children born to Oliver and Ruth (Cooley) King. Oliver King was the son of Parmenas King and Hannah Terry. John's mother, Ruth Cooley, Jr., born 18 July 1757, Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, was the daughter of Aaron Cooley and his wife, Ruth Mears.

Samuel Ashley King's mother, Alpa M. H. Buck, born 27 April 1807, Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont, was the daughter of Daniel Buck, born 9 November 1753, Hebron, Tolland County, Connecticut. Daniel Buck was probably the son of Thomas Buck and Jane Seymour. Daniel, a veteran of the Revolutionary War, suffered the loss of his left arm as a result of an injury sustained in battle.

Daniel Buck became a well-known lawyer and politician. Did his war injury affect his choice of a profession? In the following paragraph his service to his state and country were itemized in Who Was Who in America. Alpa's mother was Content Ashley, born 1771, Claremont, New Hampshire, the daughter of Samuel Ashley and Lydia Doolittle. Content Buck died 14 January 1850, Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts, at age 78 from a "disease of heart. She was buried in the Old Cemetery, Chelsea, Vermont, beside her husband.

Daniel Buck was mentioned in the following paragraph on page 151 of Who Was Who in America, Historical Volume 1607-1896, Revised Edition, 1967:

> Buck, Daniel, congressman, state ofcl.; b. Hebron, Conn., Nov. 9, 1753; s. Thomas and Jane Buck; m. Content Ashley, Sept. 22, 1786, 11 children including Daniel. Fought in Am. Revolution; one of Vt.'s earliest settlers, 1780; admitted to Vt. Bar, 1783; pros. atty, Orange County (Vt.), 1783-85, clk. Orange County Ct., 1783-84; del. to Vt. (Federalist) from Vt., 4th Congress, 1795-97; states atty. Windsor County (Vt.), 1802-03. Died Chelsea, Vt. Aug. 16, 1816, buried Old Cemetery, Chelsea.

It was interesting to note that Alpa M. H. Buck was their third daughter with the name of Alpa. The following records were obtained from the Norwich Town Hall, Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont: "Alpa Buck eldest daughter of Daniel & Content Buck died September 30th - 1803. Alpa Buck 2nd 4th -- daughter of Daniel & Content Buck born April 18th 1804 and died the 27th day of April A.D. 1807. Alpa Buck 3rd 5th daughter of Daniel and Content Buck was born the 27th of April A.D. 1807 about an hour before her sister died."* To date, information has not been found to explain the source of this important name.. * List of marriages, Births + Deaths for Daniel Buck + Content (Ashley) Buck Family from Early Town Records, page 285, Norwich, Windsor County Vermont

Content Buck, lived almost 34 years after the death of her husband.* In 1838, she applied for a widow's pension in response to an Act of Congress enacted on 7th July 1838 entitled An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. A letter in Daniel Buck's pension file on June 19, 1895 to George W. Bassett, Los Angeles, California from the Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., provided the following information: "In reply to your request for a statement of the military history of Daniel Buck a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his (or his widow's) application for pension on file in this Bureau. From papers on file with his widow's claim for pension it appears that he enlisted in the summer of 1775 as a private in Capt. Stephen Pearl's company, Col. B. R. Woodbridge's Massachusetts regiment, and in December, 1776, was commissioned a Sergeant in Capt. Asa Barnes' company, Col. Paul D. Sergent's regiment. It is probable that he rendered later service as a private but the dates of his enlistment and discharge are not given.. . .Battles engaged in: White Plains, Trenton, Bennington; Residence of soldier at enlistment, Lanesborough, Mass., Date of application for pension, by widow, April 16, 1839; Residence at date of application, of widow, Washington, D. At the battle of Bennington he received a wound in the left arm which necessitated its amputation.. .Commissioner, Commissioner."* Letter to George W. Bassett, Los Angeles, Calif. 19 June 1895, from Dept of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D.C.

Research indicated that Alpa M. H. (Buck) King lived in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts. She married David Morgan born 12 January 1797, Beverly, Massachusetts, on 1 July 1851 in Lawrence.* Research indicated that John King moved to Huron County, Ohio and died circa 1850 in Indiana.* No facts have surfaced concerning the place or date of death for either Alpa or John.* Marriage Record for Alpa M.H. .Hannah (Studwell) King (Henry Ett, on her father's will) born 29 March 1830, Genoa, Cayuga County, New York, was the daughter of William Studwell and his wife, Elizabeth. Elizabeth Studwell's maiden name has not been determined despite research by several Studwell descendants. William Studwell, born 16 September 1784, Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, was a son of Gabriel Studwell, born Stamford, Connecticut, died 5 April 1831 in Genoa, Cayuga County, New York.

Additional data is available, but since the information does not directly relate to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, the facts will be limited to those already presented.

Edward John Leach and Elizabeth "Lizzie" King were married 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.* Edward and Elizabeth had five children, Mabel Edna, born 19 July 1889, Britton, South Dakota; John Stedwell, born February 1891, Havana, Sargent County, North Dakota; Samuel Jay, born 26 November 1892, Havana,* Edward James, born 29 December 1896, Havana; and Leola Elizabeth, born 10 September 1908* in Havana.

Their oldest child, Mabel Edna, married William Wood Hastings on 14 February 1908 in Havana. They had two children Willard Edward and Elizabeth Edna. Mabel died in 1961 in Sioux Falls, Minnehaha County, South Dakota. She was buried in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota.

John Stedwell Leach, their second child, married Kate P. Macy on 26 September 1916 in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota. Their children were John Macy Leach, William King Leach, and Necia, Kate's daughter from her first marriage. After their younger son, William King Leach, graduated from high school in Havana, John and Kate moved with their family to Portland, Oregon. John died 5 December 1947 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon.

Their third child, Samuel Jay Leach, married Jessie Jordan on 20 June 1927 in Fargo, Cass County, North Dakota. Jean was Sam and Jessie's only child. Samuel died 8 March 1945 in Havana. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota.

Their fourth child, Edward James Leach married Vera Eleanor Chandler, born 29 August 1897, Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, died 29 April 1932, Rockford, Winnebago County, Illinois, daughter of William Abraham Chandler and Lulu A. Jones. Edward and Vera married 20 April 1918 in Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota. They had five children, Jane, Vera, Elizabeth, Edward James, Jr., and Sally Ann. Edward, Sr., died 23 August 1963 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. He was buried in Willamette National Cemetery, Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon

Their fifth and youngest child, Leola Elizabeth, was born 10 September 1908 in Havana. Leola attended the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks, North Dakota. She taught school in Havana for several years before moving to California in 1936. Lee married Rex Reginald Hyde on 4 October 1936 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California. They moved to northern California where Lee taught high school English in Newark and Fremont for many years. Rex died in the early 1970's. The Hydes had no children. Leola Hyde currently lives in Roseville, California.

After this brief discussion of the three children born to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, his wife, this sketch will return to Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, where John and Mary lived from about 1855 to circa 1882.

Listings in the Racine [Wisconsin] City Directory for 1883-1884 recorded "Leach, John C., farmer, res. 1206 N. Chatham," and "Leach Edward J. moulder, res., 1206 N. Chatham.". The 1885 directory listed 1206 N. Chatham as John C. Leach's residence, but no occupation was provided. Another listing for the same address appeared in the 1885 directory for "Leach, Edward J., student, W. U. Tel. Co., res. 1206 N. Chatham." In 1887, the following listing appeared for "Leach, John C., farmer, 1220 N. Chatham," and "Leach, Hattie, assistant, C. C.. Beebe, res. 1220 N. Chatham." Edward J. Leach was no longer listed in the Racine City Directory in 1887. Since Edward Leach married Elizabeth King in White Town, Sourth Dakota, on the 4 September 1888, he probably left the Racine area between 1885 and 1888..

The listings for John C. and Hattie in 1888 read as follows: "Leach, John C., works J. W. Higgie; res., 1333 N. Main" and "Leach, Hattie M. asst. C. C. Beebe, res. 1333 N. Main." William Leach was listed as a moulder, residence 812 Hamilton in 1888 The following listings appeared in the 1890-1891 directory: "Leach John C., emp R. H. Mfg. Co., r. 1333 N. Main and Leach. Hattie M. Miss, asst. Dr. C.. Beebe, bds 1333 N. Main." As previously mentioned, Hattie appeared in the 1897 directory, but direct evidence from a primary source indicated that she moved before 1897., Havana Congregational Church entered Hattie on the membership list on 8 March 1896. Hattie's obituary provided the following information: "She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak." A letter dated 31 March 1989 from the First United Methodist Church provided the following report: "J. C. and Mrs. Mary Leach were members of the church in 1889 and were given letters of transfer to Havana, North Dakota in 1895." These conflicting data leave unanswered questions about the exact year the Leaches moved to North Dakota, but these remarks seemed to show that the three Leaches probably moved between 1892 and 1895. The city directory listing for Hattie in 1897 was obviously an error.

Note: Another Leach family lived in Racine in 1891. Eugene W. Leach and George W. Leach, Jr., were sons of George Washington Leach, born Burke, Vermont, the son of George Washington Leach and Sally Walter. Both Eugene, George, Jr., and John C. Leach worked at the R. H. Mfg Co. in 1891. In addition, they belonged to the First United Methodist Church; but to date, we have made no genealogical connection between these two families.

John C. Leach and his son, Edward Leach, were important people in the construction and the early operation of the Congregational Church in Havana. The following remarks clarified their importance to the success of this endeavor: The church records contained the minutes of a "Meeting for the consideration of building of the church, Havana, N.D. Oct. 6, 1896; moderator Rev. Williams. Motion made and carried that J. C. Leach confer with E. J. Leach for location and price of lot for church." A second meeting of the church was held Oct, 13 1896. :"The following motions were made and carried: "That the society accept one of the lots selected by E. J. and J. C. Leach." Another motion made at this meeting suggested the importance of the Leaches in the decision making process. "That a building committee consisting of the three trustees and Mr. Darrow, Mr. E. J. Leach, Mr. Ladd, Mr. Brougher and Mrs Murphy decide the cost and size of the church." In a meeting for organizing the church, these remarks seemed to underscore the importance of the Leaches in the organization of this church. "The next business was the election of officers. The following were elected by unanimous vote. Clerk - Mrs. C. A. Bacon. Treasurer - Hattie M. Leach, Deacon - Francis Andrus, Trustee for three years - J. C. Leach, for two years - Mrs. Catherine Brougher, - for one year G. K. Chesley. The motion was made and approved that we ask to be received into the Wahpetin Conference. Carried by unanimous vote.. - Adjournment, Hattie M. Leach Secy Pro tem" The minutes of the annual church meeting on May 20, 1897 reflected the following: "Moved and seconded that J. C. Leach be appointed Deacon for three years" and finally "If Mrs. Brougher's or J. C. Leach's term as trustee expires with the present year the clerk has the authority to extend the time another year. Carried. Moved and seconded that Hattie M. Leach be elected treasurer for the ensuing year. Carried."

Page 3 of the church records provided a list of the deacons of the church. John C. Leach's service as a deacon began on May 20, 1897, and ended Dec. 31, 1900. His second appointment as deacon began on Jan. 24, 1901, and ended Dec. 26, 1902, and the third appointment began Dec. 30, 1902. The last deacon assignment began Dec. 25 and ended with his death on Aug. 12, 1905. John C.

Leach joined this church on 8 March 1896; and he held a position of trust and honor until his death.

At least two attempts have been made to secure a death certificate from the State of North Dakota for John C. Leach. A death certificate has proved to be an essential genealogical record for determining the names of the deceased parents, the place and date of birth, and the date , place and cause of death. The two requests for this record have been unsuccessful. It may be wise to make one more request for the record as many states have probably computerized their records. If by chance the original record were misplaced or temporarily lost, it might now be available. The most likely scenario was that the record was not filed as required. His death occurred shortly after the State of North Dakota required vital records.

Mary (Greene) Leach died in 1909, and her death record was obtained from the State of North Dakota Her death certificate gave 30 March 1909 as her date of death. Her death certificate provided the names of her parents and her place and date of birth. Other records have corroborated the data found in this record. It was a very valuable document, indeed.

An obituary was found for John C. Leach in the Monday afternoon issue, August 14, 1905, of The Racine Daily Journal, Racine, Wisconsin.

> J. C. Leach, a former old resident of Racine died on Saturday afternoon at his home in Havana, North Dakota age 78 years. The remains will be brought to the city for burial. Funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son, William Leach, [? ?] Villa Street. There survives the deceased a wife, two sons and one daughter. Mr. Leach was one of the honored and early residents and left her about ten years ago.

An obituary for Mary Leach has not been located. No obituary was found in the Sargent County papers for John or Mary Leach. Some obituaries contain important genealogical data, but John Leach's obituary was too general in content to be useful. We needed the names of his parents. We still do not know the name of his mother.

John Leach was buried in Grave 5, and Mary was buried in Grave 4, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin. Their daughter, Hattie, was buried beside them in Grave 3.

Dear Ms. Leach,

In 1912 a Mr. E.W. Leach published the book "The Methodist Church in Early Racine". I have enclosed a number of mentions of the more famous George W. Leach and family from this book.

Mrs. Carol Feest, Church Secretary, has scanned the old records which were kept and survived the fire of 1882 and found that your particular relatives, J.C. and Mrs. Mary Leach were members of the church in 1889 and were given letters of transfer to Havana North Dakota in 1895. However, there are no records indicating where they lived before 1889.

It is always interesting to imagine the reasons people move from one part of the country to another. Perhaps the John Leach family moved to North Dakota for farming work or other interests. According to historical records, it would seem that the George Leach Family were active and prominent in the church and community and close friends with Wisconsin's richest family, S.J. Johnson. It may have been that John Leach and family were the salt of the earth, humbly going about their life without getting involved. We do not have any records indicating such, but thought perhaps John and George were brothers.

In the annals of church records we often note how members have been removed for lack of responsibility and involvement and note that one member was removed for "disgracing the church and community." We trust that none of this came even close to your dear relatives.

Sincerely,

Jim McChesney

Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1850 United States Federal Census, the Seventh Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1850 Federal Census.

Hi Jean:

PLEASE CANCEL MY REQUEST FOR WORK ON THE LEACH & GREENE FAMILIES OF HOPKINTON CIRCA 1835 - 1840.

My current circumstances make it necessary for me to cancel the request for work on David leach, John Crum Leach, John Leach & the Rufus Greene family at this time.

I may be in touch with you again in the future. My plans are very indefinite at this time.

Application for a Transfer.

State of Ohio,
County of Hamilton, ss.

On this twenty ninth day of August 1845, before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace for the said County of Hamilton, personally appeared Content Buck, who, on her oath, declares that she is the widow of Daniel Buck formerly of Vermont, who formerly belonged to a company of the Connecticut volunteers, in the service of the United States; that her name was placed on the pension roll of the District of Columbia, whence she has lately removed; that she now resides in the State of Ohio, where she intends to remain, and wishes her pension to be there payable, in future. The following are her reasons for removing from Washington, D. C. to Cincinnati, Ohio, to wit: that her eldest son, D. Azro A. Buck, late of Washington, D. C. with whom she heretofore resided, being deceased, she has ceased to reside with her only remaining son, Joseph Dixon, at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Declaration

In order, to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of the 7th July 1838, entitled "An Act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows"

District of Columbia
Washington County } ss.

On this 16th day April AD. 1839 personally appeared before the Orphans Court of the County of Washington aforesaid Content Buck late a resident of Chelsea in the County of Orange and State of Vermont, now of the City of Washington aforesaid aged sixty seven years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on her oath, make the following declaration, according to the best of her knowledge & belief, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress, passed July 7. 1838, entitled "An Act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows". That she is the widow of Daniel Buck late of Chelsea in the State of Vermont who was a private in the Army of the Revolution. The said Daniel Buck was born in Hebron in the State of Connecticut and shortly after the battle of Bunker hill joined the American Army near Boston in the summer of 1775 and there enlisted as a soldier on the continental establishment and continued in said service and marched from Boston southward with said Army upon the evacuation of Boston. He the said Daniel Buck continued in said service by enlistments from time to time until 1777. The said Daniel Buck in his marches south was in the battle at White plains near New York, thence marched through New Jersey and went into winter quarters at Valley Forge in the winter of 1776, from thence he crossed the Delaware river and was in the battle of Brunton after which he went to the north, was engaged in the campaign which resulted in the capture of Burgoyne in 1777 when he left the service.

This declarant has no documentary evidence of the services of the said Daniel Buck and as her acquaintance with him did not commence until 1785 all the knowledge she has as to their services was derived from him. She is also unable to state the company, Regiment or line in which he served, the names of the officers having escaped her recollection, but she believes that for part of the period he served in the Massachusetts line & for part in the Connecticut line. She cannot state any more particularly than she has done the place of his residence when he entered the service.

The said Daniel Buck was an invalid pensioner of the Revolutionary war in consequence of the loss of his left arm from a wound received in battle.

This declarant further says that she was married to the said Daniel Buck on the 22d day of September 1786 and that her husband the aforesaid Daniel Buck died on the 14th day of August 1816, that she was not married to him prior to his leaving the service, but the marriage took place previous to the first of January seventeen hundred and ninety four and at the time above stated and that she has not been married since his death but now remains his widow.

Dear Mrs. Leach:

This is in answer to your request for research on the Studwell and King families of Huron county. I don't think there is as much mystery about this problem as what you have thought. The main problem is a careless use of given names by some of your ancestors and the fact that you took the biography saying "Spring of 1853" as gospel. You see, Spring of 1853 and January of 1852 are pretty close, aren't they? The person who gave that information may been speaking many years after the fact. The handwritten marriage record at the courthouse is probably supposed to be Hannahette, but looks like Harriette or whatever when you look at the writing. So, the January 1852 record you have is the correct one.

The Norwalk Reflector newspaper of 3 Feb 1852 and the Norwalk Experiment newspaper of 10 Feb 1852 report the marriage of Samuel A. King of Townsend township to Miss Hannahette Studwell of Hartland. This took place 29 Jan 1852 at the Mansion House Hotel in Norwalk. So, we have evidence of the marriage of Samuel A. King and Hannahette Studwell.

I did not examine the original Will of william Studwell, but the transcribed copy gives one of his daughters as Henrietta. Apparently this is Hannahette, since she is definitely a daughter of William. do you have a copy of the Will? Enclosed is a copy taken from the Partition Records of Huron County which shows Hannah and Samuel King of Avoca, Iowa, as defendants and owners of 1/6 of the William Studwell land in Hartland.

Also enclosed is a copy of a deed from Rachel and Rebecca Studwell whereby they sold their interests in the farm to Samuel Lockwood as a trustee. The deed is complicated, and probably was some way to pay off some bills without losing the place. You'll see, though, that Hannah King was one of the parties to it.

I believe all of these things definitely link her to William Studwell and establish her parentage. William Studwell bought this land 30 june 1835 for $1,263. He was "of Hartland" when he bought it from Ezra B. and Sophronia Gillett. That's recorded in deed volume 10, page 123. About the same time there was a Joseph Studwell/Steadwell in Fitchville township not far south of Hartland. Perhaps he was a brother to William. I didn't check on him any further.

The Studwells are buried in the Hartland Ridge Cemetery on DeRussey Road about two miles north of the farm. This cemetery is south of Rte. 18 about eight miles southeast of Norwalk. These stones are there: Elizabeth, wife of William, died 15 Sept 1840 age 42; Rachel M., died 7 Sept 1871 age 54 yrs-1 month-2 days; William died 11 August 1843 aged 66 years; and William died 28 April 1862 aged 44 yrs-11 mo-19days. I presume William and Rachel are children of William and Elizabeth.

14 Apr 1989 Dear Betty,

I saw your John Crum Leach query in BJ Coumb newsletter and also in Gen Helper Nov/Dec 89 110. Just at present I am replacing my mobile home there with a new one and have my machines unplugged but wish to send you some info I have collected which may or may not relate. So hope you can read this.

My ancestor William Crum was first found 1800 census at Peru Clinton Co NY. I have been unable to trace him back from there. He resided there 1800-1815/6. and at Chesterfield Essex Co.

"History Clinton & Franklin Cos NY." DH. Hand 1880:

[Crum is spelled in early records of NY + MA etc
Crumb, Coomb, Crombe etc. I don't know who above Samuel might be.]

Among the 13 children of my Wm b. 1798-1879 the only one we don't have any records about is Elizabeth b ca 1804 at Peru. The oldest son
John Crum b. 1800/01 m Malissa Ketchum and they left
Peru 1833 and were in Ohio 1834, Ind 1850, Mich 1852 and Story Co IA 1856 where they finally sett at Legrande Marshall Co IA.
I have just found that a grandson of John -
Roy Crum - went to Waldron Is from Friday Harbor ~~Wash~~ 1937 where he d ca 1957. He was single and had a sister Ruth Southworth (adopted name) of Pasadena CA who was also single in 1937.

Malissa Ketchum was b at Peru 1811 dau of Zephoniah & Sylvia K both dec by 1825.
Her gr father was Abijah Ketchum of Peru d. 1825.
Her uncle & aunt Justus Ketchum 1850-51 b NY m Azuba Leyon 1850-45 b VT

Justus was appointed Malissa's guardian and she had a brother Alonzo b 1812 about whom nothing is known.

Since Shelburne is across the lake from Peru even it makes some of the other locations somewhat coincidental but perhaps this is all of the westward movement. If any of this rings any bells let me know as I have other info. Could this have been a second marriage for Betsey Weed? or she a second wife?

Hope to hear from you re this.

Sincerely
Janet

was the first I cannot say. Nothing is left of the habitation now.

SIMEON YOUNG lived a little west on the south side in a log cabin. He was followed by Porter Pierce and he by Asa Murray.

ALBERT S. HARRAN took the next tract west on south side in 1834, where he built a log house and later a frame one. It passed to his son John A., and from him to Arthur Sampier, who now owns it. John A. Harran some thirty years ago bought the Hopkins farm on the south side of the road in Hopkinton village. He was a large, intelligent man and in every way a good neighbor and citizen. He suddenly died in his home in the summer of 1902.

DAVID FISK had a log house across the road from Mr. Harran. George Wilkinson, who was a tailor, lived there after Mr. Fisk. His daughter Hannah married Sumner Sweet of Nicholville. His other children were Martha, who married Mr. Alonzo Rhoades; William of Nicholville, and George, who was lame and died; Mary, who married Porter Pierce; Harriet, brought up by Dr. Sprague, married a Mr. Williams of Vermont. Mr. Harran bought the farm.

JOHN LEACH, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone.

SAMUEL CLARK had a log house on the north side and a little west of John Leach. The Naylor family lived there after Mr. Clark, though Mr. Naylor only came now and then. They were followed by Rufus Greene, who, I learn from the records, took title. He had a large family of bright children. They were, so far as I learn, William, Ira, Jane, who married Darius E. Kent; Mary, who married John Leach, Jr.; Robert and Melvin. David Leach acquired the farm and lived there till his recent death. It is now held by his widow, with Carlos Colton in charge.

RUFUS GREENE came from Shelburne, Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood, and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius, Should be Betsey Wood

Ira, who died in Missouri; Charles, who died in California; Mary, who married John Leach and now lives at Havana, N. D.; and Robert, who died at Racine, Wis. All are dead except Mary. William S. Howe bought it in 1848. He lived for a time in a log house. It was so old and cold that he spent several winters in the house in Hopkinton village which he had first bought. After a time he built the present buildings which stand back from the road. He sold out some thirty-five years ago when he built a brick residence in Parishville village where he now resides. His children were and are Daniel, of Wichita, Kan.; and Ella (Mrs. P. H.Smith), of Brooklyn, N. Y. Nelson Gardner and Jeff Rowell have held it since.

JESSE MOON took the tract next west on south side. He sold to John Smith, who acquired the first title. It passed to his son Josiah, and is now held by John Ramo. Mr. Moon and Nathaniel Baldwin built a sawmill on the rear end of the farm, which was run for some years with indifferent success owing to a shortage of water.

LEWIS RICHARDSON had a log house on the north side, a little west of Mr. Smith. David Leach lived there at first before buying the place next east. Nothing remains to denote its once existence, and the land about is cheerless indeed.

BARNEY MOON had a log house on the south side, just over the "Pinnacle," which the rise of ground at this point was called. I see that D. E. Kent got the first title. He sold to John Cutler, who built the present frame house. In digging his well he had to go down fifty-two feet to reach water. His children were, so far as I learn, Emma (Mrs. John A. Harran of Hopkinton), Marilla (Mrs. Roswell Andrews), Silas, deceased, and Harlon of ——. The place is now held by Silas Rockwood.

WILLIAM G. RICHARDSON took title to seventy-nine acres across the road which is now pretty nearly a sand waste. He died there and the buildings have all gone.

WILLARD SMITH took the place west of Mr. Cutler and of the road leading south. Amasa Hurlbut took the first title to it. George Kimball also lived on it for a time, when Dyer Hazen bought it years ago and now holds it.
